

FaCE Enhancing Scholarly Agendas Grants—Awards Given

ROUND	NAME & DEPARTMENT	COLLEGE	SUMMARY OF PROPOSAL
Nov. 2004	Cynthia McCown English	Beloit	To support fees and travel for a planned anthology of 1930 “agit-prop” theatre pieces during a 2005 spring sabbatical.
Nov. 2004	Amy Sarno Theatre & Communications	Beloit	To continue the development and staging of a documentary play recounting the folklore of local hauntings in Beloit.
Nov. 2004	Steve Feller Physics	Coe	To support travel and expenses for a planning trip to England to discuss a spring 2006 sabbatical role at the Nuclear Magnetic Resonance group.
Nov. 2004	Christina McOmber Art & Art History	Cornell	To support a trip to the Roman convent of SS. Domenico e Sisto during a fall 2005 sabbatical to continue work on enhancing the dissertation topic for publication.
Nov. 2004	Catherine Stewart History	Cornell	To support two research trips (one to Florida and one to New York City) in order to pursue materials to revise the dissertation for publication and begin new scholarship during a 2005-2006 sabbatical.
Nov. 2004	Joan Hutchinson Computer Science	Macalester	To allow for attendance at and travel to the International Conference on Combinatorics, Graph Theory, and Computing, thereby enhancing sabbatical research.
Nov. 2004	William Moseley Geography	Macalester	To provide partial funding for living expenses for a three month period of a longer two year research project in South Africa.
Nov. 2004	Dianna Shandy Anthropology	Macalester	To provide sabbatical funding for travel, expenses, and research assistance to further preparation for a book on African Immigration to Ireland.
Nov. 2004	Simon Cordery History	Monmouth	To provide for a course release in spring 2005 in order to focus on a new project, a biography of Mother Jones.
Nov. 2004	Lori Bergeron Biology	Ripon	To begin examining the molecular mechanisms of gene regulation in the Gram-positive bacteria, Actinomyces naeslundii .
Nov. 2004	Robert Wallace Biology	Ripon	To provide funding for optical support that will interface with a compound microscope to enhance research and scholarship.
Nov. 2004	Nancy Thompson Art & Art History	St. Olaf	To provide travel and expenses for a six-week trip to Florence during the summer of 2005 to complete archival research for a monograph on De Matteis.

FaCE Enhancing Scholarly Agendas Grants—Awards Given

ROUND	NAME & DEPARTMENT	COLLEGE	SUMMARY OF PROPOSAL
Feb. 2005	Debra Majeed Philosophy & Religious Studies	Beloit	To provide funding for a research trip to North Carolina to continue the ethnographic study of Southeast Asian, Muslim women during a 2005-2006 sabbatical.
Feb. 2005	Linda Sturtz History	Beloit	To provide travel, ground transport, and funds for sabbatical trips to London and Jamaica in order to complete a book project on gender and race in early Jamaican history.
Feb. 2005	Shahzad Bashir Religion	Carleton	To support two sabbatical research trips—to Chicago and to Bloomington, IN—to acquire materials for a book project on religion and society in the late Medieval Islamic East.
Feb. 2005	Deborah Gross Chemistry	Carleton	To supply funding for a trip to Switzerland, with equipment, in order to analyze aerosol particles.
Feb. 2005	Dan Lehn Psychology	Coe	To provide travel and expenses related to a spring 2006 sabbatical, which will allow continued collaboration on data analysis and manuscript writing on a project relating to self consciousness.
Feb. 2005	Paula Sanchini Biology	Coe	To provide funds for travel to two laboratories and attendance at the Ecological Society of America to meet with collaborators to prepare for a 2006-2007 sabbatical.
Feb. 2005	Donald Chamberlain Music	Cornell	To support two research trips—one to New Orleans and one to Rutgers—to study early jazz practices, a new line of research.
Feb. 2005	Cynthia Strong Chemistry	Cornell	To purchase materials for the production of cell cultures and purification of protein, a new area of research, and to fund travel and conference registration in order to meet with the research collaborator.
Feb. 2005	Alan Schrift Philosophy	Grinnell	To fund a trip to Paris in order to continue working on a history of the Agregation de Philosophie , from a sociological perspective rather than a historical one.
Feb. 2005	Peter Schwartzman Environmental Studies	Knox	To fund participation in a summer 2005 Spanish language immersion program to enable the further study of Spanish and environmental issues during a sabbatical in Costa Rica in the first half of 2006.
Feb. 2005	Steven Galovich Mathematics	Lake Forest	To support 2005-2006 sabbatical research activities in order to begin a new project in mathematical education.
Feb. 2005	Cynthia Hahn French	Lake Forest	To support a trip to Lebanon to acquire background about Lebanon and Evelyne Accad in order to prepare for a 2005-2006 sabbatical project translating one of her novels.

FaCE Enhancing Scholarly Agendas Grants—Awards Given

ROUND	NAME & DEPARTMENT	COLLEGE	SUMMARY OF PROPOSAL
Feb. 2005	Timothy Troy Theatre Arts	Lawrence	To support living expenses in Dublin for a 2005 sabbatical in order to further explore great Irish playwrights and to finish a new project, a play.
Feb. 2005	Nancy Wall Biology	Lawrence	To fund conference registration and travel for an advanced microscopy workshop in order to continue with a new research project on zebrafish.
Feb. 2005	Arjun Guneratne Anthropology	Macalester	To provide support for a research trip to England in order to gather data about environmentalism in Sri Lanka, as a new phase in a larger research project.
Feb. 2005	Daniel Hornbach Biology	Macalester	To fund travel and registration for two ESRI workshops on GIS to enhance planned sabbatical research on freshwater mussel communities.
Feb. 2005	Stacy Lotz Art	Monmouth	To fund coursework in welding, materials for the construction of new sculptures, and attendance at local workshops in order to enhance techniques and expand collection of work during spring 2006 sabbatical.
Feb. 2005	Ben Potter Art	Ripon	To purchase paints, brushes, and digitalizing equipment, as well as fund a visit to New York, in order to develop a new body of artwork and apply for a Pollack-Krasner grant.
Feb. 2005	Jeanine Grenberg Philosophy	St. Olaf	To fund a visit to Rice University for one-on-one meetings to prepare the first chapter of a new book.
Feb. 2005	Amelia Taylor Mathematics	St. Olaf	To fund attendance at a fall workshop on phylogenetics in Ohio as part of a longer-term research program.
Nov. 2005	Laura E. Parmentier Chemistry	Beloit	To provide travel to and living expenses near Sogn og Fjordane University College in Norway while studying geological and chemical signals in relation to environmental change.
Nov. 2005	Lynda K. Barrow Political Science	Coe	To provide lodging expenses during a research trip to Mexican state of Morelos to further scholarship on the state legislature and political values of elected officials.
Nov. 2005	Christina Torres-Rouff Anthropology	Colorado	To support two related trips—one to Chicago and one to Oxford, England—to complete analysis on human skeletal remains from Kish, Iraq.
Nov. 2005	Ellen Whale Physical Education	Cornell	To provide research texts, reference materials and related expenses in preparation for and during a sabbatical trip to Greece to study ancient Greek athletics.

FaCE Enhancing Scholarly Agendas Grants—Awards Given

ROUND	NAME & DEPARTMENT	COLLEGE	SUMMARY OF PROPOSAL
Nov. 2005	Henry Rietz Religious Studies	Grinnell	To provide partial travel expenses for trips to Hawaii, Washington, D.C., and from Los Angeles to Manzanar, to develop a project on public memorialization of World War II.
Nov. 2005	Nancy Eberhardt Anthropology & Sociology	Knox	To support a trip to Thailand in advance of planned sabbatical time there to develop professional and institutional connections and explore field sites.
Nov. 2005	Christopher Reed Art	Lake Forest	To support travel to France in order to access primary source materials at the Musée Cernuschi and Musée le Vergeur related to Japanese art and culture.
Nov. 2005	Jeffrey Clark Geology	Lawrence	To provide course fees and related expenses for two classes on hydrologic modeling and stormwater management.
Nov. 2005	Carol Lawton Art	Lawrence	To fund travel to Greece and a membership in the American School of Classical Studies in Athens in order to complete a book on Greek and Roman votive reliefs from Athenian Agora.
Nov. 2005	Lynn M. Hudson History	Macalester	To provide travel and living expenses for a month-long research trip to various locales in California while gathering material for a book project on Jim Crow in the West.
Nov. 2005	Rogelio Miñana Hispanic & Latin American Studies	Macalester	To support travel to and expenses in Spain while collecting data and cultural information during the anniversary celebrations of Don Quixote .
Nov. 2005	Ken Cramer Biology	Monmouth	To provide relocation (temporary) expenses to Portland, Oregon in order to collaborate with another researcher of brown recluse spiders.
Nov. 2005	Petra Kuppinger Sociology/ Anthropology	Monmouth	To fund Turkish language tutoring, travel, living expenses, and local costs to/in Germany in order to conduct an ethnographic study on Islam/Muslim practices in German urban spaces and cultures.
Nov. 2005	Sarah Mahler Hughes Music	Ripon	To provide travel support for two trips to Scotland which will provide a venue for both composing and performing music and extend professional contacts.
Nov. 2005	Jody M. Roy Communications	Ripon	To provide travel funding for three research trips in order to collect biographical information on the subject of a future book.
Nov. 2005	Beth Christensen Music Librarian	St. Olaf	To provide travel funds for two research trips—one to Harvard & Yale and one to NYC to renew an interest in composer Carl Ruggles.

FaCE Enhancing Scholarly Agendas Grants—Awards Given

ROUND	NAME & DEPARTMENT	COLLEGE	SUMMARY OF PROPOSAL
Nov. 2005	Eric S. Cole Biology	St. Olaf	To provide funding to travel to San Salvador, Bahamas to begin the study of the reproductive strategies of Atlantic Pearl Oysters.
Mar. 2006	Nancy Cho English	Carleton	Funding for an extended stay in London, after directing Carleton's English Seminar in London, in order to examine the London reception of works by American playwrights.
Mar. 2006	William S. Carson Music	Coe	To provide funding for two research trips (New York and Australia) in order to verify a full band arrangement for Spoon River by Percy Grainger.
Mar. 2006	Steven Marc Weiss Theatre Arts	Coe	To provide funding to attend classes on Anne Bogart's Viewpoint technique in order to incorporate those exercises into directing.
Mar. 2006	David Gardiner Religion	Colorado	To provide funding for research visits to Stanford and Columbia Universities in order to use their East Asian collections, materials that are not available at home.
Mar. 2006	Daniel Raffin Art	Colorado	To provide funding to defray the costs of a four-week stay in Venice in order to generate materials for an interactive web-site and a series of installations based on Italo Calvino's Invisible Cities .
Mar. 2006	Rhawn Denniston Geology	Cornell	Funding to contribute to the costs of working at the University of New Mexico during the sabbatical year. The funds would contribute to housing, food, and travel.
Mar. 2006	Samuel A. Rebelsky Computer Science	Grinnell	To attend the Association of Computing Machinery SIGGRAPH Conference in order to begin an investigation into the application of the functional paradigm to computer graphics. It will provide him with more experience in computer graphics.
Mar. 2006	Shiwei Chen History	Lake Forest	To partially fund research at Peking University in China in 2007 in order to research the history of Academia Sinica and transform a dissertation into a book.
Mar. 2006	Eilene Hoft-March French & Francophone Studies	Lawrence	To provide funding for a research trip to New York in order to research the immigrant experience and find specific family documents in order to write a creative biography that reflects upon the practice of life writing.
Mar. 2006	Kathy Privatt Theatre	Lawrence	To provide funding to attend the Alexandar Technique (technique that examines the principles controlling human movement) Summer Residential Workshop at Sweet Briar College in 2006.
Mar. 2006	Kuo-ming Sung Chinese and Japanese	Lawrence	To provide funding for a trip to Lhasa, Tibet to collect linguistic data for a project on colloquial Lhas Tibetan in order to write a scholarly paper on either the phonology of tones or a sociolinguistic discussion of the Tibetan use of honorifics, a new direction from work on syntax.
Mar. 2006	Nicholas Dobelbower French & Francophone Studies	Macalester	Funding for a trip to France in order to complete a book manuscript on convict culture.
Mar. 2006	Susan Holm Spanish	Monmouth	To provide funding for a trip to Turkey in order to do research to write two non-fiction essays.

FaCE Enhancing Scholarly Agendas Grants—Awards Given

ROUND	NAME & DEPARTMENT	COLLEGE	SUMMARY OF PROPOSAL
Mar. 2006	Andrew F. Kirchmeier Educational Studies	Ripon	To provide funding for a sabbatical trip to Chiapas in order to study the social studies curriculum of four indigenous schools to consider the connection of the academic content with the political context.
Mar. 2006	Christopher L. Chiappari Sociology & Anthropology	St. Olaf	To provide funding for field research in Guatemala to research the Maya religious experience in order to complete a book manuscript consisting primarily of interviews.
Mar. 2006	Irve Dell Art & Art History	St.Olaf	To provide funding for travel to Prague in order to exhibit an object and puppet show at the Prague Fringe Festival.