

Off-Campus Study Quick Facts

ACM & Lawrence University
Partners in higher education since 1958.

WHY ACM?

Lawrence University is one of 14 schools that form the Associated Colleges of the Midwest (ACM). ACM programs can offer you several advantages:

- A campus faculty advisor for every ACM program.
- An academic curriculum grounded in the liberal arts and sciences.
- Programs that are small in size, with other students from similar colleges.
- Course credits which should easily transfer to your college.
- Ease in the use of Financial Aid, with no ACM program application fee.
- A long history of students from your college attending ACM programs.

CAMPUS APPLICATION PROCEDURES

- Participation on an off-campus program requires approval by the Lawrence Subcommittee on Off-Campus Study.
- Students must apply using the Lawrence Off-Campus Study Proposal. The application forms may be obtained online, but must be completed in hard copy and filed at the International House.
- By the Lawrence application deadline, students must turn in completed materials for both the Lawrence proposal and the ACM program application. Lawrence application material is available on the Off-Campus Programs website or by contacting the Off-Campus Programs Coordinator in the International House.
- For more information, go to www.lawrence.edu/academics/offcampus.

CAMPUS DEADLINES

January 30, 2012 - Application deadline for all off-campus study programs for the 2012-2013 academic year.
