WHY ACM?

Macalester College is one of a select number of member schools in the Associated Colleges of the Midwest (ACM) consortium. As a result, choosing an ACM program can offer you several advantages:

- An on-campus faculty advisor for every ACM program.
- Course credits which should easily transfer to your college.
- Ease in the use of Financial Aid for your program.
- No application fee to apply to ACM programs.
- A long history of students from your college attending ACM programs.

CAMPUS APPLICATION PROCEDURES

You must first complete the Macalester Study Abroad Proposal:

1. Download the proposal on the Macalester website.
2. Complete and print the proposal.
3. Have your Department Chair sign the Coursework Approval Form (p. 4).
4. Have your advisor sign the proposal (p. 6).
5. Sign the Student Agreement and Transcript Release (p. 7).
6. Write all the necessary essays (pp. 8-12).
7. Submit your proposal and essays, plus four copies, to the Study Abroad Office by the deadline.
8. Make sure to also apply directly to the ACM program of your choice.
